

I would like to see rules in place that serve the public interest by ensuring diverse ownership of the media. Please vote to retain the current limits on media ownership or roll them back. Too much local control and service have been lost already, and further giveaways would be obscene, undermining the public's ownership of the airwaves and crippling the free flow of information in the United States.